

» INTERNATIONAL OPPORTUNITIES

Go Global with Georgia Tech!

What you need to know.

Study Abroad

With over 120+ programs, Georgia Tech's Study Abroad program spans nearly every continent and academic discipline.

All undergraduates can:

- Study abroad during fall, spring, summer, or the full academic year.
- Study with a Georgia Tech group or at a partner university.
- Earn academic credit toward their degree while studying abroad. With proper planning, graduation delays aren't a concern.
- Take their financial aid with them. Many study abroad specific scholarships available.

Eligibility

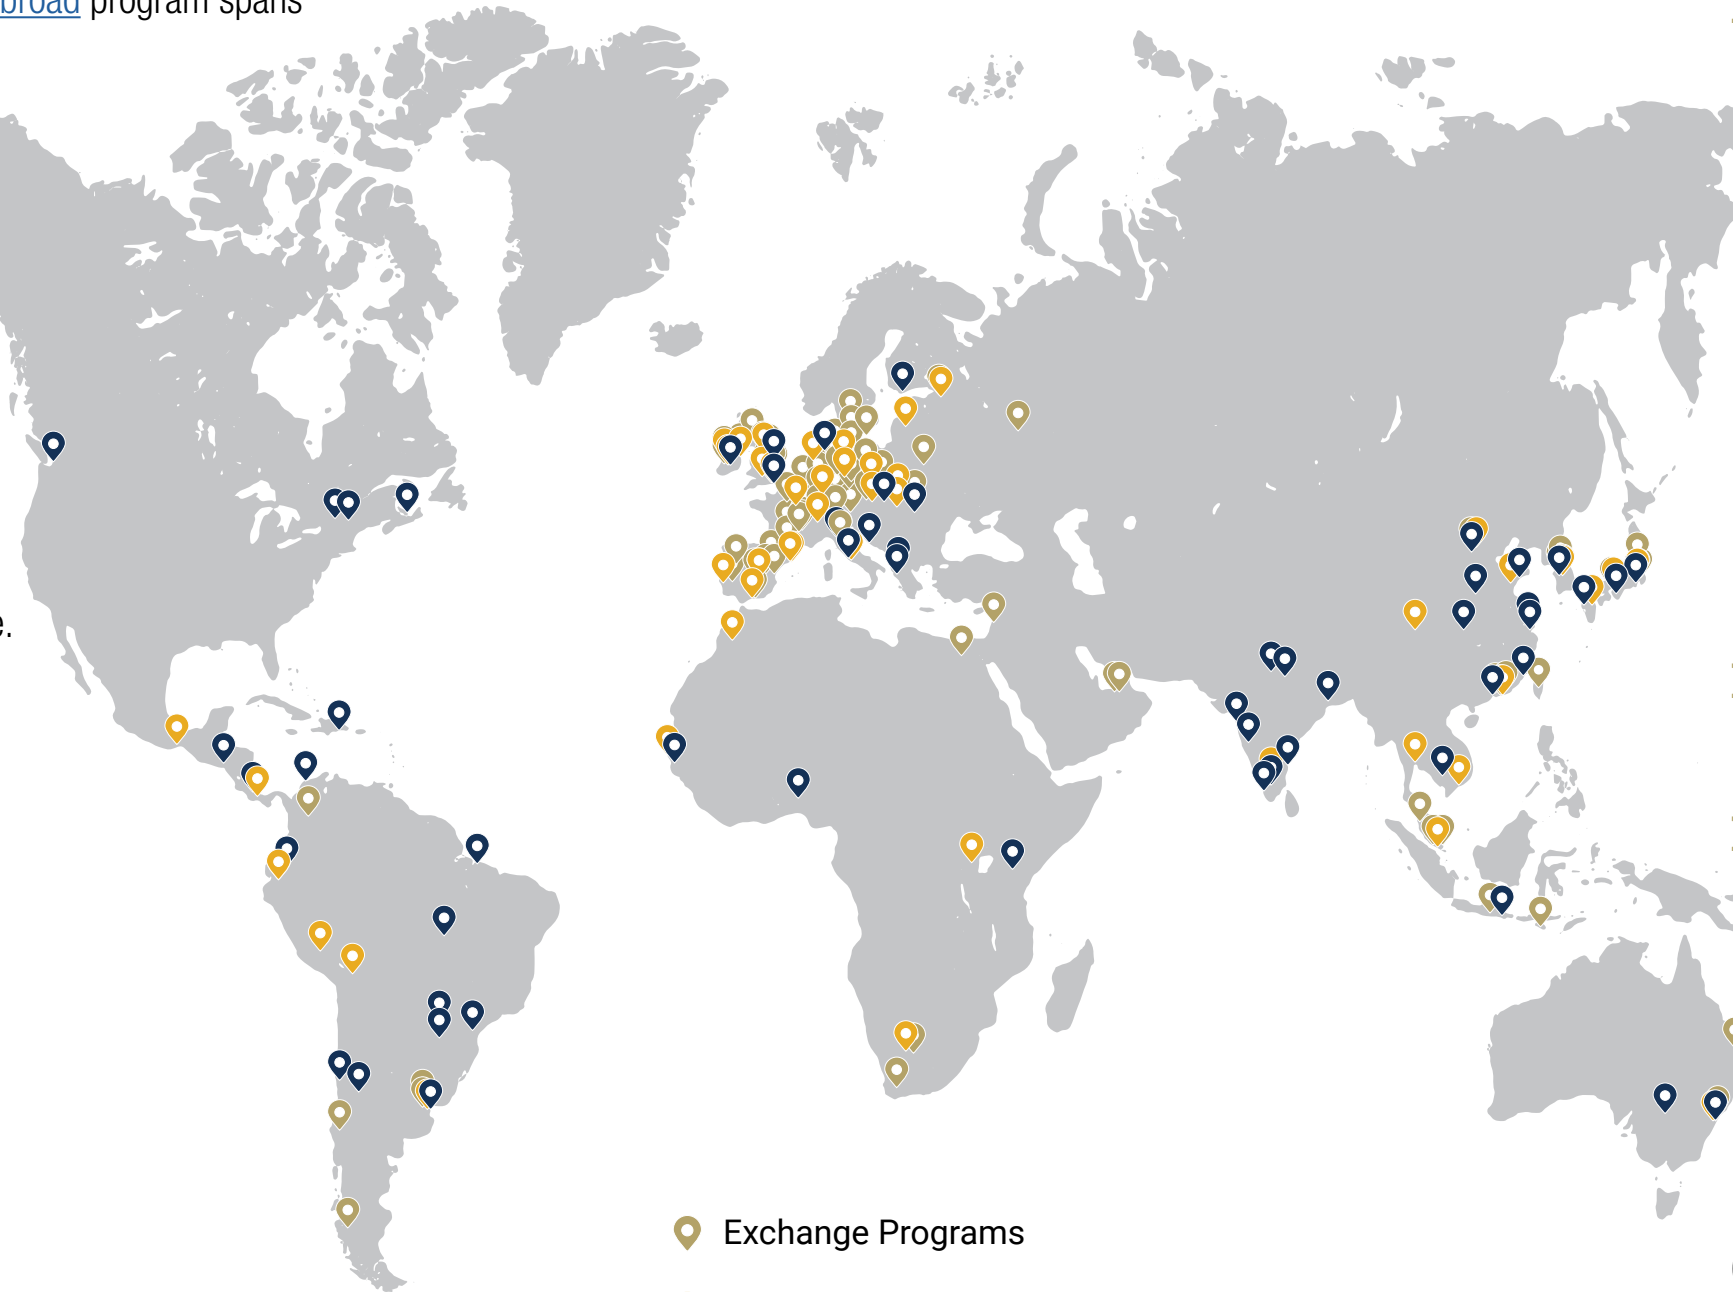

- Be at least 18.
- Be at Tech for 2 semesters.
- Be in good academic standing.
- Be in good disciplinary standing.
- Some programs have a GPA requirement.

Fast Facts

- 120+ programs.
- Open to all undergraduate majors.
- Earn in-residence credit.*
*No Need to delay graduation.
- Students pay the in-state tuition rate
- The Georgia Tech – Lorraine satellite campus charges out-of-state students a fee. Beginning in fall 2020 that fee will be $6,050 and is subject to change.
- Most financial aid travels with students.

Learn More

<http://atlas.gatech.edu>

📍 Exchange Programs

📍 FLSA Programs

📍 GRIP Placements

Global Research & Internship Program (GRIP)

- Gain professional work experience with companies around the globe.
- Intern in corporate, research/university, non-profit, and community service settings.
- Undergraduates and graduates can intern any semester. Start preparing in the first year.
- On average, 150 GT students intern in nearly 40 countries each year.
- Sign up for the Global Internship Newsletter.

Learn more

<https://grip.oie.gatech.edu/>

International Plan

- Complete 26 (or more) weeks abroad.
- Take 3 globally-focused courses.
- Demonstrate proficiency in a foreign language.
- Incorporate an international element into their senior capstone course.

IP students will have the IP designation on their Georgia Tech diploma and will gain skills and experiences to make them more marketable to employers and graduate schools. .

Learn More

<http://oie.gatech.edu/ip>

Surprisingly Affordable

Tech students pay the in-state tuition rate when studying abroad. Out-of-state students pay an extra fee when they study abroad at the Georgia Tech – Lorraine satellite campus. Beginning in fall 2020, this fee will be $6,050 and is subject to change.

Students take their financial aid with them on Tech study abroad programs. While there are few exceptions, this includes:

- HOPE
- Zell Miller
- Tech Promise
- Stamps Presidential Scholarships
- Loans
- Grants

Costs vary by program. Program choice will impact the overall cost of study abroad.

Study Abroad Scholarships Available

- OIE Administered Scholarships
- Campus Scholarships
- National Scholarships

